

Garff Parish District Commissioners' Complaints Policy and Procedure

1st September 2020

Complaints Policy

Garff Parish Commissioners aims to provide efficient and effective public services. We accept that any organisation providing a service will, on occasion, receive complaints. This complaints procedure is intended to ensure that all complaints are handled promptly, fairly, consistently and wherever possible, resolved to the complainant's satisfaction.

Complaints are an important way for the management of this organisation to be accountable to the public and provide valuable prompts to review our performance and the conduct of people that work within and for it.

A complaint arises when we fail to meet one of our standards, or if someone is dissatisfied with something we have done or failed to do.

We will endeavour to acknowledge all complaints that require investigation within 3 days of receipt.

Complaints Procedure

How to complain

You can make a complaint: in person at the Commissioners' or Housing Office, by telephone or in writing (including electronic messages).

Anonymous complaints will be considered carefully and action taken if appropriate.

It is vital to this process that your expectations and/or your desired outcome are stated clearly.

The first stage is to make your complaint directly to the person that you have been dealing with. In most cases this will resolve the issue quickly and without escalating your complaint any further.

If you wish to speak to someone else or you are still dissatisfied you should contact either the Clerk to the Commissioners or if the matter relates to Housing, the Housing Manager.

Should the matter relate to either of these people, the complaint can be made in writing addressed to the Chairman at the address below but marked "For the consideration only of the Chairman, Private and Confidential".

Should you wish to contact the Chairman by phone, the contact details are shown on the website, or contact the office at the phone number given below who will assist you.

The Clerk/Manager/Chairman will take a note of your complaint, investigate it and report back to you in writing within 15 working days. If a detailed reply is not possible within that period you will be contacted with an explanation and advised when a full response will be given.

In the case of a more complex complaint, which necessitates discussion by the Board of Commissioners or outside parties, we undertake to keep the customer informed at least on a monthly basis.

Your complaint, in whatever format, can be sent to:

The format of your Complaint

Your complaint should contain the following information: -

- Your name
- Your address
- Your email
- The exact nature of your complaint.
- The identity of the staff member(s) involved (if any)
- Whether there were any witnesses and details as to how they can be contacted.
- Proof of any damage or injury caused.
- Your desired expectations and/or your desired outcome of submitting this complaint

Making a Complaint in Person

If a customer visits the Office and registers an enquiry or complaint in person, the staff member or members directly involved will be requested to initially deal with the complaint.

In most cases this will resolve the issue quickly and without escalating your complaint any further. However, should further specialist knowledge be required, the Authority will try to provide an appropriate member of staff who is qualified to answer the enquiry or complaint at the time of the first visit. This would usually be the Clerk/Housing Manager.

Depending on the nature of the issue, the member of staff may set out his understanding of your complaint in writing, and ask you to sign it so there is a written record of the matter.

Making a Complaint by telephone

If a customer would like to make a complaint by telephone, they should initially ask for the member of staff providing the service, if they are not available, and the customer wishes to deal with them directly, we will ask the customer to leave their details and arrange for the staff member to return their call.

However, if the customer wishes to speak to a senior officer, they should ask for the Clerk/Manager who will then investigate.

Depending on the nature of the issue, the Clerk/Manager may set out his understanding of your complaint in writing, and ask you to sign and return it so there is a written record of the matter.

Making a Complaint in writing

If the customer would like to make an enquiry or complaint in writing by letter or email, we will endeavour to give a written acknowledgement within 3 working days.

The enquiry or complaint will then be dealt with using the same urgency as the other forms of registration.

Unreasonable or vexatious complaints

Your complaint may not be dealt with if it is felt that is unreasonable or persistent, that is, time consuming to manage and interferes with proper consideration of the complaint or vexatious. Some examples are:

- Refusing to specify the grounds of a complaint, despite offers of help.
- Refusing to cooperate with the complaints investigation process.
- Refusing to accept that certain issues are not within the scope of a complaints procedure.
- Insisting on the complaint being dealt with in ways which are incompatible with the adopted complaints procedure or with good practice.
- Making unjustified complaints about staff who are trying to deal with the issues, and seeking to have them replaced.
- Changing the basis of the complaint as the investigation proceeds.
- Denying or changing statements made at an earlier stage.
- Introducing trivial or irrelevant new information at a later stage.
- Raising many detailed but unimportant questions and insisting they are all answered.
- Submitting falsified documents from themselves or others.
- Adopting a 'scatter gun' approach: pursuing parallel complaints on the same issue with various organisations.
- Making excessive demands on the time and resources of staff with lengthy phone calls, emails to numerous Commissioners staff, or detailed letters every few days, and expecting immediate responses.
- Submitting repeat complaints with minor additions/variations the complainant insists make these 'new' complaints.
- Refusing to accept the decision; repeatedly arguing points with no new evidence.

You will be advised in writing that your complaint has been deemed in this way.

Process if you are dissatisfied with the final decision made by the Commissioners investigation:

Any complaint must first be made in writing to the Garff Commissioners and they must be given an opportunity to take what they consider to be all reasonable steps to deal with the complaint; if the complainant remains dissatisfied, she or he may then complain to the Tynwald Commissioner for Administration within six months of the Commissioners' final decision.

Complaints to the Tynwald Commissioner have to be in writing, so you should use either of these methods to make contact:-
